DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 3 and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

4. Claim 3 recites the limitation "said calculated discrimination axis" in line 3. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

5. Claim 9 recites the limitation "said calculated discrimination axis" in lines 3-4. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Art Unit: 2615

7. Claims 1 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Moed et al., US 6,141,433.

In regard to claims 1 and 7, Moed et al., US 6,141,433, discloses an object recognizing apparatus and method recognizing a target object image from images, comprising:

pixel value distribution extracting means (region segmenter 200) for extracting corresponding pixel value distributions of various regions in said object image and a background image existing as a background of said object image (see column 2, line 54 to column 3, line 12); and recognizing means (processor 130) for recognizing said object image based on difference in pixel value distributions of various regions extracted by said pixel value distribution extracting means (see column 3, line 45 to column 4, line 30 and column 7, lines 23-50: the region confidence generation process recognizes the objects with a confidence by using the deference images to determine the regions the likely contain an object and then using edge extraction to further determine the location of the object).

Allowable Subject Matter

8. Claims 2, 4-6, 8, and 10-12 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Art Unit: 2615

9. Claims 3 and 9 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

US 6,542,621, discloses an object recognizing apparatus that detect object in the scene for a given video image.

US 6,295,367, discloses a system and method for tracking movement of objects in a scene from a stream of video frames.

US 6,731,799, discloses a system and method for determining the object boundary of an object in a video scene.

US 6,185,314, discloses a system and method for matching image information to object model information.
